

So what else is there?

I don't want to go to school anymore.

Then don't go.

Um... what?

Don't go.

What do you mean "Don't go?"

I mean don't go to school if you don't want to go to school any more.

Really?

Yes really.

But if I don't go to school, what will I do all day?

How should I know?? Go do whatever you think is more important than going to school!

But nothing's more important than a good education...

Go away.
