Ooo, you make me so mad.

I want to punch your face.

I'm going to punch your face,
and then you'll really be sorry.

I'm going to punch your face,
and you'll run crying all the way home.

I'm going to punch your face,
and then everyone will fear and respect me.

I'm going to punch your face,
and I guess that broken tooth will remind you who's boss forever.

I punch your face, then for some reason your eye stops working.

I try to punch your face,
but I miss and somehow you end up punching my face.

I punch your face,
but later you come back with your friends
and all of you beat me up.

Or, maybe I punch your face,
and you fall down and hit your head and die.

I punch your face,
and you'll never be my friend again.

About the Authors

Pinky (black & white, short velvety fur) and Bunny (grey & white, fluffy long fur) live in the desert near Baker, California where it is very quiet but also very hot during the day. They met in Los Angeles in 2004 while searching for food. They soon discovered that they had a lot of interests in common: history, art, social justice, educational systems, water, death, and so on. In 2006 Pinky & Bunny launched a somewhat misunderstood learning project for cats (human beings also ok) called The Pinky Show (www.PinkyShow.org), and they have been not really internationally famous ever since, but sort of. They work on The Pinky Show every day from about 7:30 (wake up, brush teeth) until about 2 in the morning, but they take naps and drink coffee. Pinky & Bunny are best friends but they also fight a lot, which apparently is normal.*

When they are not working, Pinky enjoys taking care of her Ant Farm and trying to learn how to play musical instruments. Bunny's "relaxational hobbies" include playing computer games, cross stitching, and watching cartoons.

*The violent scenes depicted in I Want To Punch Your Face are only drawings. No one was hurt in the creation of this book.

PINKY SHOW

Question: What is The Pinky Show?

Answer: The Pinky Show is the original super lo-tech hand-drawn educational project by cats. We focus on information & ideas that have been misrepresented, suppressed, ignored, or otherwise excluded from mainstream discussion, and do this in a way that is informal and easy-to-understand.

Our materials are available for FREE on the internet: www.PinkyShow.org.
