

So... which way to FAIL?

Hey Daisy... can I ask you something?

Do you think it's important for me to go to school?

Well... it depends.

Depends on what?

Well, for example, if you want to be an accountant or a gynecologist, you can't get jobs like that without going to school.

Okay... that's it??

No. Also, if you want people to think you're intelligent, you can go to school and get a lot of degrees.

!?

So... you're saying I should go to school if I want to be smart and get a good job?

No...

...I'm saying school might be a good fit for you if you're the type that needs constant emotional validation or can't figure out how to make your own work.

You know what? I think I can do this...

...I'm going to quit school!
